

III Corps & Fort Hood Vision

We are America's Armored Corps – an expeditionary Corps for joint and combined operations, based at the world's premier military installation that is focused on preparing Warriors and units for full-spectrum operations and providing world class care to our Soldiers, Families and Civilians.

- ✧ An Expeditionary Corps Headquarters: prepared to lead protracted, full-spectrum operations as a joint, combined, or interagency headquarters.
- ✧ The Army's proponent for Heavy Forces: advocate and synchronize ARFORGEN for Heavy Forces across the Army to enable unity of effort; leverage experience and expertise of the Corps Headquarters to develop leaders and staffs at all echelons.
- ✧ The Army's Premier Military Installation and Community: a community partnership unlike any other; serving and caring for Service Members, Families, Civilians, and Retirees; integrated into the regional community; enabling Warriors to focus on full-spectrum operations and enduring missions.

